

6th Grade Summer Reading

- This summer you get to read a very good book called Where the Red Fern Grows!
- You may want to take notes while reading to help you remember the following information:
 - Who are the main characters? (Humans and animals)
 - Where does the story take place? (Be able to give several details of the setting)
 - What is the main conflict, or problem, faced in this story?
 - What was the most exciting part of the book?
 - What was the saddest part of the book?

*Be ready for a test over these questions on Tuesday, August 15, 2023.
